

Think of the Week – from 2K

What if names were not invented?

Eleanor 4M

Everybody would be like “Hey you, whatever your name is!”

Iesha

You would have to make up names for people and invent names

Izzy 4M

Everyone would say “Oi you thingy!”

Lilly 4M

If you wanted to talk to someone you’ll say “Oi you!”

Ella B

You would go against and the law and you’d just have to tap someone to get their attention.

No name – please put a name on your suggestions

Then we would always point or say “Oy you”
