

7th March 2019

Dear Parents and Carers,

Following their amazing performance in the concerts last year, Bowmansgreen School Choir has been invited by the Radlett Festival of Music to sing in a concert at the Radlett Centre, 22nd June, 2pm and 6.30pm. This is in a professional theatre with specialist sound and lighting engineers. The concerts have been supported by generous grants from local councillors. Each choir is given a solo act in the first half (Bowmansgreen will sing a few pieces from the Alban Arena concert on their own) and we all join together in the second half to perform songs from Joseph and the Amazing Technicolour Dreamcoat.

Tickets are £10 each (£5 children aged 12 and under) and will be on sale soon from the Radlett Centre Box office: 01923 859291 <http://www.radlettcentre.co.uk/>

We are being joined by four other choirs (including Fair Field Junior School) and semi-professional soloists. Previous concerts put on by the Radlett Festival of Music have sold out so do buy your tickets quickly.

Further details on clothing and timing will be sent out nearer the time. As a summary:

- We will meet at the Radlett Centre at 9.20am to rehearse until 11.30am. Children can then go home.
- They will need to be back at the Radlett Centre at 1.30pm, and then 6.00pm for the evening performance.

Clothing:

First half	School uniform
Joseph	Girls: Ideally a plain but brightly coloured scarf if you already have one (we have a few but not enough for every choir member). Or any bright scarf with a pattern. Boys: plain but brightly coloured cap

Please return the form below to the office by Monday 25th March. We do need parents/carers to help on the day so please volunteer if you are able. We plan for the children to watch the other choirs in the first half and be back stage when they are not singing in the second half. We are also looking for people and local businesses to sponsor the programme and other merchandise. Please indicate below if you would like further information on this.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs Flatt and Mrs Street
