Or if you don't have access to the internet play I-spy verbs: Look around your room or in the garden and find objects and make them do, have or be something in turn eg. The tree looks beautiful, the tree is tall, the tree has dark green leaves, the table stands in the living room, the picture hangs on the wall. How many sentences can you speak in two minutes?
Main Teaching
Ask the question, what is a verb?
A verb is a doing word that explains what someone or something is , has or does . All sentences contain a verb.
Can you spot the verbs in these sentences?
The wolf walked into the woods He followed the path as he strolled towards the straw cottage When he reached the old, rickety door, he tapped it and waited. (See the mark scheme)
Why are powerful verbs important?
Verbs can be used to make our writing more exciting for the reader.
Choose one of the verbs in the list below and see how many synonyms you can generate in 30 secs. Write the list in your books. You could challenge a family member
Walked    Said    Put
Did you beat Mrs Pattenden?

Can you spot all of the verbs in this passage and improve them? Choose a verb that will create a clear picture for the reader. Use the word bank below to help you if you need it.

The morning had finally arrived. Jack woke before sunrise and went to the window. There was a beanstalk. He quickly washed his face, put on his clothes and put on his shoes before running outside. He stood at the bottom of a colossal beanstalk, looking up with wonder.

Choose Challenge 1, 2 or 3 and then check your answers with the Mark scheme. For an extra challenge try Challenge X and ask a parent or older family member to check it with you when they have time.

Challenge 1

Carefully copy the passage below. Replace the underlined verbs with a powerful alternative. You may choose a verb from the word bank below or choose your own.

Once upon a time there lived a little girl called Goldilocks. One day, Goldilocks was walking in the forest and found a house. She knocked on the door, and when nobody answered, she decided to go inside. At the table there were three bowls of porridge. Goldilocks was hungry. She tried the porridge from the large bowl. "This porridge is too salty!" she said. She tried the porridge from the medium bowl. "This porridge is too sweet!" she said. She tried the porridge from the small bowl. "This porridge is just right," she said and she ate it all up.

Challenge 2

Carefully copy the passage below. Replace the underlined verbs with a powerful alternative of your choice.

One day, the magic mirror told the queen that Snow White was the fairest in the land. The queen was very angry and told one of her huntsmen to kill Snow White. The huntsman found Snow White but instead of killing her he told her about the queen and so Snow White went away to the forest. While walking through the forest, she found a strange little house. She went inside where she found that the house was very messy! When the queen heard where Snow White was living, she disguised herself as an old lady and went to find her.

Challenge 3

Carefully copy the passage below. Find at least 10 verbs and replace them with an alternative powerful verb. Underline all the new verbs you have used

Puss put some letters in the bag and waited. Soon, a curious rabbit put its head in. Puss picked up the bag and caught it. He then put the bag over his shoulder and went to the palace, where he gave the rabbit to the king saying, "This is a gift from my master, the Marquis of Carabas." The next day, Puss caught a pair of partridges. Again, he took them to the palace and told the king they were from the Marquis of Carabas. One day, Puss heard the king would be going past a nearby river in his royal coach. He told his master to take off all his clothes and bathe in the river. When the king's carriage came in to sight, Puss began to say loudly, "Help! My lord the Marquis of Carabas is drowning!"

Challenge X

Write your own short passage about The three little pigs using some of the powerful verbs we have looked at in this lesson.
