

Year 5 English Distance Teaching and Learning

Week beginning: 27.4.20

Lesson 5
Learning Intention WALT use the 'ough' letter string.	Key Vocabulary: Letter string- is a group of letters that appear in a word	What you will need: Pen Lined paper/English book Lesson 5 video
Starter
Be the teacher and correct these spellings:
1. Shaun loved playing football acording to his best friend.
2. There were no more avalible cinema times for that evening.
3. The princess didn't rekognis the prince.
4. The foregn exchange student loved her new school.
5. Andrew loved reading books espehally before bedtime.
6. Mum sinserly apologised for being late.
7. "It's lovely to meet you," whispered the boy with an orkword smile.
8. Grandpa cooked a delicious vegtabul soup for dinner.
See Mark Scheme for correct spellings.

Main Teaching

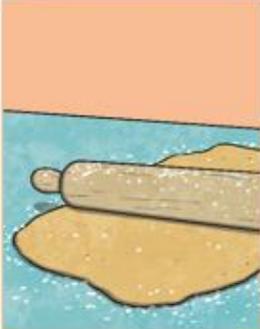

We are going to be looking at words which contain the 'ough' letter string.

Sometimes 'ough' can make a...

an 'oo' sound
as in through

or

'long o' sound
as in dough

or an 'off' sound

as in cough

or an 'uff' sound

as in rough

Can you think of any other words where the 'ough' letter string makes these particular sounds?

How many words can you write down in a minute that contain the 'ough' letter string?
(See the mark scheme for some examples.)

Use 5 'ough' words in a sentence. Can you start your sentences with a fronted adverbial? For example, Early this morning, the small yacht sent a mayday message because it was in danger on the rough seas.

Independent Tasks

In our challenges today, we are going to practise our spellings and handwriting together. Once you have completed one of the challenges, do the crossword in Challenge X.

Challenge 1

Copy the sentences in your best, neat handwriting, choosing the correct 'ough' word from the box below.

My sister had a nasty _____ so my mum gave her some medicine.

You have to knead the _____ well to make the bread.

I haven't got _____ money to buy the game now.

The two brave knights _____ on horse back.

Do you know how to play the game _____ and crosses?

Farmers _____ their fields in autumn.

My hands are very _____ and dry because I have washed them a lot.

Look _____ the window to see my house!

cough rough noughts dough through enough

plough fought

Challenge 2

Copy the sentences in your best, neat handwriting, choosing the correct 'ough' word from the box below.

Yesterday, Janice _____ her fancy new pencil case to school.

Have you heard that Americans love to eat _____?

Last week, the farmer _____ his field ready to plant seeds.

In Science, we have learnt that it is important to have _____ in your diet.

In school, Ms Smith told me that my work hadn't been as _____ as usual.

For my birthday, grandma wrote a _____ message in my card.

For the last few days, we have _____ hand wash everywhere.

Ruby players need a certain amount of _____ to endure a game.

thoughtful brought sought toughness doughnuts

Challenge 3

Copy the sentences in your best, neat handwriting, choosing the correct 'ough' word from the box below.

Nevertheless, the scientists were _____ at this breakthrough.

Often, famines occur after a period of _____.

It was with _____ and careful planning that the expedition was a success.

I was so _____ that I couldn't think clearly and understand what he was saying.

The _____ of the material irritated my skin.

I'm _____ determined to put one hundred per cent effort into my handwriting.

Her _____ comes across in everything she does.

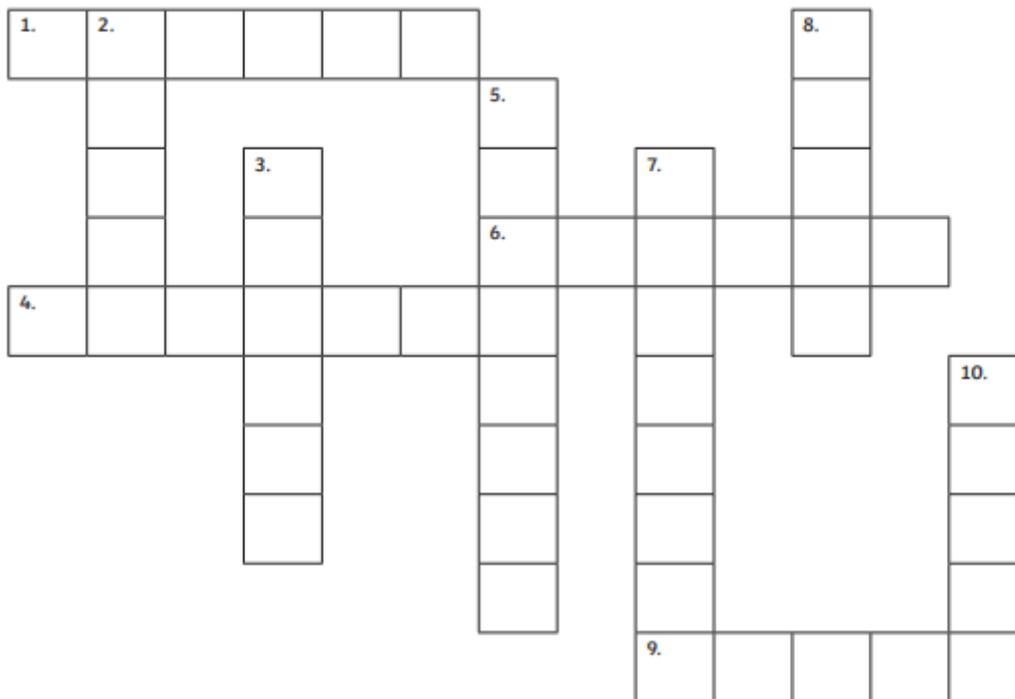

The actor has become use to her _____ fame.

thoroughly forethought unsought roughness

thoughtfulness jubilant overwrought drought

Challenge X

Complete the crossword using 'ough' words.

Across:

1. The animals greedily ate from the (6)
4. The train sped (7)
6. I still ate the chocolate even I was full. (6)
9. The test was but I still got full marks. (5)

Down:

2. The sea made the sailors feel seasick. (5)
3. There wasn't time to finish the work. (6)
5. she was ill, Kim still went to school. (8)
7. I ate a jam-filled (8)
8. When I had flu, I had a terrible, barking (5)
10. The baker kneaded the (5)

Review

Explain to an adult why words containing the 'ough' letter string can be tricky to learn.

Mark Scheme – Lesson 5

Starter

according available recognise foreign especially sincerely awkward vegetable

Main Teaching

Did you think of ...?

an 'oo' sound
as in through

or

'long o' sound
as in dough

or

an 'off' sound
as in cough

or

an 'uff' sound
as in rough

through dough though although doughnut cough trough rough tough enough

Independent Tasks

Challenge 1

My sister had a nasty cough so my mum gave her some medicine.

You have to knead the dough well to make the bread.
I haven't got enough money to buy the game now.
The two brave knights fought on horse back.
Do you know how to play the game noughts and crosses?
Farmers plough their fields in autumn.
My hands are very rough and dry because I have washed them a lot.
Look through the window to see my house!

Challenge 2

Yesterday, Janice brought her fancy new pencil case to school.
Have you heard that Americans love to eat doughnuts?
Last week, the farmer ploughed his field ready to plant seeds.
In Science, we have learnt that it is important to have roughage in your diet.
In school, Ms Smith told me that my work hadn't been as thorough as usual.
For my birthday, grandma wrote a thoughtful message in my card.
For the last few days, we have sought hand wash everywhere.
Ruby players need a certain amount of toughness to endure a game.

Challenge 3

Nevertheless, the scientists were jubilant at this breakthrough.
Often, famines occur after a period of drought.
It was with forethought and careful planning that the expedition was a success.
I was so overwrought that I couldn't think clearly and understand what he was saying.
The roughness of the material irritated my skin.
I'm thoroughly determined to put one hundred percent effort into my handwriting.
Her thoughtfulness comes across in everything she does.
The actor has become use to her unsought fame.

Challenge X

