

Y1 English Distance Teaching and Learning

Week beginning: 1st June 2020

Lesson 5
Learning Intention: Write a riddle.	Key Vocabulary: Adjective Noun	What you will need: Pencil Paper
Starter
Read the poem and ask the children to guess what it is about. Cover the picture and answer below as you read the riddle. My shell is thin and brittle and I'm littler than small. Like a roly-poly cactus. I'm a spiky kind of ball. I'd like to stick my tongue out If I had one at all. Andrea Shavick Answer Sea Urchin
Main Teaching
Read through some examples of animal riddles. If you do not have access to the internet cover the right side of the page as this is the answer to the riddle.
I only come out at night. I hang upside down to give you a fright. If you come too close, you might get a vampire bite! What am I?	 A bat!

My body is long and round.
In the jungle I am found.
When I move I make no sound.
As I slither on the ground.

What am I?

A snake!

I have 4 legs.
I'm covered in fur.
If you stroke me, then I might purr!

What am I?

A cat!

Remember:

Don't give too much information away straight away!

Use adjectives to describe the animal.

Think about your animal

- Where does it live?
- What does it look like?
- What does it like doing?
-

Don't forget capital letters, finger spaces and full stops.

Main Task

Write a riddle about one of the animals below.

Challenge X

Can you make your riddle rhyme?

Learning Review

Can you guess the answer to the riddles linked to the beach?

You always bring me to the beach
So you don't have to lay on the sand
Then once you've been in the water
With drying you, I help lend a hand

I'm made into a castle
Although I am not a brick
I might get into your food
If you have a beach picnic

Mark Scheme

Main Task

Example of a riddle for each animal. Please use this to support your child's writing.
Don't forget capital letters, finger spaces and full stops.

I love to jump and splash with my friends.
I'd eat fish all day long.
My long grey body slides through the water.
I'm playful and cheeky.
What am I?

I walk sideways.
I love to hide in the sand.
I have two huge claws.
Be careful I'll pinch you if you get too close!
What am I?

I fly in the air over water and land.
My feathers are grey and white.
And I love to steal chips that fall in the sand.
What am I?

Learning Review

You always bring me to the beach
So you don't have to lay on the sand
Then once you've been in the water
With drying you, I help lend a hand

Towel

I'm made into a castle
Although I am not a brick
I might get into your food
If you have a beach picnic

sand