Look again at the plan and activities for lessons 1 & 2 of this week, we were learning about the past tense and present tense.

To show that something happened in the past the verb changes in a sentence. Usually we add the 'ed' suffix to the verb.

BUT some verbs are irregular; we don't add 'ed' and the spelling changes.

Today's activities need you to use your understanding of both the regular and irregular verbs. Choose one of the challenges then the review (you can do all the challenges if you want to).

Independent Tasks

Challenge 1

Challenge X

This paragraph was meant to be written in the past tense. Can you find and correct all the mistakes and rewrite it neatly?

Yesterday I dug a really deep hole in the damp soil. The hole went down so far that I nearly fell in so I carefully climbed in and carried on digging. I collected thirty-seven worms and saw eight slugs. When I had finished I was told to have a shower and put on some fresh clothes because I was covered in mud.
