

Year 4 English Distance Teaching and Learning

Week beginning: 11th May 2020

Lesson 4

Learning Intention
WALT understand the present perfect form.

Key Vocabulary:
Verb – a doing word that explains what someone or something is, has or does
All sentences contain a verb
Present perfect tense
Describes an action that started in the past and is continuous up until now
Auxiliary verb – helps to describe the tense of other verbs
Past participle – the past tense verb (usually the –ed word)

What you will need:
Pen
Lined paper/English book Challenges
Pencil
Ruler
Week 4 Lesson 4 video

Starter

Tick the sentences below which have a verb underlined.

The fruit was fresh and juicy.

He opens the shop early on Mondays.

The history book on the shelf was dusty.

He built the house all on his own.

A group of whales is called a school or a pod.

The calendar was still on February even though it was now April.

Main Teaching

Underline the verb in the sentence below.

They exercised daily to keep in good shape.

exercised

Add the correct auxiliary verb to the sentence below.

They _____ increased their prices after a difficult year.

do can have have

Circle all the verbs in the grid below.

natural	February	breath
build	extreme	straight
calendar	stayed	breathe

natural	February	breath
build	extreme	straight
calendar	stayed	breathe

The present perfect tense is one that describes an action that started in the past and is continuous up until now.

Tick the sentences which are written in the present perfect tense.

- A. The company calendar for next year has just arrived.
- B. He has only played in the final quarter of the game.
- C. Jenny promised to let us visit her new puppy during the school holidays.

A and B

Alfie thinks he has written a sentence in the present perfect tense.

The history lesson continued to be really interesting.

Is he correct? Explain why.

Alfie is incorrect because his sentence is written in the simple past. Present perfect tense is formed using the auxiliary verb 'has' or 'have' followed by the past participle.

Add the auxiliary verb has or have to the following phrases to change them into the present perfect form.

I remember

They appeared

You completed

He exercises

She considered

I have remembered

They have appeared

You have completed

He has exercised

She has considered

Have the verbs below been sorted into the correct columns?

Simple Past	Present Perfect
interested	have arrived
experimented	has appeared
has breathed	has reigned answered	decided

Convince me.

No because 'has breathed' and 'decided' are in the wrong columns. When the past tense verb follows 'has' or 'have', then it is written in present perfect tense.

Independent Tasks

Challenge 1

1a. Joshua thinks he has written a sentence in the present perfect tense.

His friend goes to my school.

Is he correct? Explain why.

R

1b. Elsie thinks she has written a sentence in the present perfect tense.

He has passed the ball.

Is she correct? Explain why.

R

2a. Add the auxiliary verb has or have to the following phrases to change them into the present perfect form.

She says

You pull

We asked

A

2b. Add the auxiliary verb has or have to the following phrases to change them into the present perfect form.

I ask

They improved

He finds

A

3a. Have the verbs below been sorted into the correct columns?

Simple Past	Present Perfect
climbed	said
moved	has pulled
has passed	have asked

Convince me.

R

3b. Have the verbs below been sorted into the correct columns?

Simple Past	Present Perfect
has filled	has done came	put found	has proved

Convince me.

R

Challenge 2

4a. Janine thinks she has written a sentence in the present perfect tense.

People always arrived early for the popular exercise class on Saturdays.

Is she correct? Explain why.

4b. Chris thinks he has written a sentence in the present perfect tense.

You must complete each page before moving on to the next one.

Is he correct? Explain why.

5a. Add the auxiliary verb has or have to the following phrases to change them into the present perfect form.

He decides

They hear

We answer

You continue

I increase

5b. Add the auxiliary verb has or have to the following phrases to change them into the present perfect form.

She reigns

I build

He describes

We
exercise

They question

6a. Have the verbs below been sorted into the correct columns?

Simple Past	Present Perfect
remembered	has promised
has appeared	have danced arrived	has played completed	tried

Convince me.

6b. Have the verbs below been sorted into the correct columns?

Simple Past	Present Perfect
answered	has increased grouped	has decided have promised	have considered
questioned	described

Convince me.

Challenge 3

7a. George thinks he has written a sentence in the present perfect tense.

The notice has already been put up, although not everybody has seen it yet.

Is he correct? Explain why.

7b. Katrina thinks she has written a sentence in the present perfect tense.

His favourite teddy bear has completely disappeared, despite him trying to keep it safe.

Is she correct? Explain why.

8a. Add the auxiliary verb has or have to the following phrases to change them into the present perfect form.

I imagine

He mentioned

She had

You caught

We circled

8b. Add the auxiliary verb has or have to the following phrases to change them into the present perfect form.

They guarded

You possess

I notice

He separated

She thought

9a. Have the verbs below been sorted into the correct columns?

Simple Past	Present Perfect
weighed	have done
strengthened	separated
pressured	have guided will believe	has experienced

Convince me.

9b. Have the verbs below been sorted into the correct columns?

Simple Past	Present Perfect
lengthened	has imagined
have been	had positioned circled	have had
mentioned	has caught

Convince me.

Challenge X

Tick the sentences which are written in the present perfect tense.

- | | |
|--|--|
| A. For many years, they have guarded the entrance to the castle. <input type="checkbox"/> | A. He occasionally played the piano, as well as various other instruments. <input type="checkbox"/> |
| B. He thought he had taken his medicine, but he had been mistaken. <input type="checkbox"/> | B. She has lived in that house for 25 long years, despite the pressure to move. <input type="checkbox"/> |
| C. They have separated the different materials in order to make the task quicker. <input type="checkbox"/> | C. The minute she has walked through the door, we must all act as ordinary as possible. <input type="checkbox"/> |

Review

Underline the sentences that are written in present perfect form in the postcard below.

Hi Mason, I am in Paris with my family. We have learnt so much about French history and the eighth century. My dad has eaten a lot since he has arrived and we have really enjoyed our time here. I will continue to write to you, I promise. Love, Julie.	  Julie Smith 4 Loyal Road York YK3 9BC
--	--

Mark Scheme – Lesson 1

Starter
Tick the sentences below which have a verb underlined.
The fruit was fresh and juicy. <input type="checkbox"/>	He opens the shop early on Mondays. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
The history book on the shelf was dusty. <input type="checkbox"/>	He built the house all on his own. <input type="checkbox"/>
A group of whales is called a school or a pod. <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	The calendar was still on February even though it was now April. <input type="checkbox"/>
Independent Tasks
Challenge 1
1a. No, his sentences is in the present tense. Present perfect tense is formed using the auxiliary verb 'has' or 'have' followed by the past participle. 2a. She has said; You have pulled; We have asked. 3a. No because 'has passed' and 'said' are in the wrong columns. When the past participle follows 'has' or 'have', then it is written in present perfect tense.	1b. Yes, because the auxiliary verb 'has' is followed by the past participle of the verb 'to pass'. 2b. I have asked; They have improved; He has found. 3b. No because 'has filled' and 'put' are in the wrong columns. When the past participle follows 'has' or 'have', then it is written in present perfect tense.
Challenge 2
4a. No, her sentence is in the past tense. Present perfect tense is formed using the auxiliary verb 'has' or 'have' followed by the past participle. 5a. He has decided; They have heard; We have answered; You have continued; I have increased. 6a. No because 'has appeared' and 'tried' are in the wrong columns. When the past participle follows 'has' or 'have', then it is written in present perfect tense.	4b. No, he has used the present tense with a modal verb (must). Present perfect tense is formed using the auxiliary verb 'has' or 'have' followed by the past participle. 5b. She has reigned; I have built; He has described; We have exercised; They have questioned. 6b. No because 'have promised' and 'described' are in the wrong columns. When the past participle follows 'has' or 'have', then it is written in present perfect tense.
Challenge 3
7a. Yes, he has used 'has' followed by the past participle of the verb 'to be' and 'to see'. 8a. I have imagined; He has mentioned; She has had; You have caught; We have circled. 9a. No because 'separated' is in the wrong column and 'will believe' is neither simple past nor present perfect, so does not belong in the table.	7b. Yes, she has used 'has' followed by the past participle of the verb 'to disappear'. 8b. They have guarded; You have possessed; I have noticed; He has separated; She has thought. 9b. No because 'have been' is in the wrong column and 'had positioned' is neither simple past nor present perfect, so does not belong in the table.
Challenge X

Purple A and C
Green B and C

Review

We have learnt so much about French history and the eighth century. My dad has eaten a lot since he has arrived and we have really enjoyed our time here.