

Year 5 English Distance Teaching and Learning

Week beginning: 1.6.20

Lesson 1

Learning Intention WALT recognise and use the perfect form of verbs	Key Vocabulary: verb - a word used to describe an action, state or occurrence tense - a form taken by a verb to show the time of an action past participle - the form of a verb, typically ending in -ed in English, which is used in forming perfect and passive tenses	What you will need: Pen Lined paper/English book Challenges Lesson 1 video
--	---	---

Starter

Let us just remind ourselves of the different perfect tenses we looked at before half-term.

Complete the table by identifying the correct perfect tense used.

Sentence	Tense
The football match had begun before Ed arrived.
She has rock climbed for many years.
I will have achieved my best score in the test.

(See Mark Scheme)

Main Teaching

Hopefully, you have remembered that in the perfect form, you have the past, present and future.

Task 1

Circle the tense used in the following sentence.

Claire will have had her baby before moving into the new house.

Present perfect

Past perfect

Future perfect

(See Mark Scheme)

Task 2

Read the passage below.

Max had coached his rugby team for two years but he will have transferred to an older age group by the next season.

Circle the verbs written in the past perfect form and underline the verbs in the future perfect form.

(See Mark Scheme)

Task 3

True or false? The sentence is written in the past perfect tense.

We will have interrupted the meeting to speak to the manager.

(See Mark Scheme)

Task 4

Greg has written the sentence below in the present perfect tense.

William has studied ancient history for three years.

Rewrite the sentence in the past perfect tense.

(See Mark Scheme)

Before you start the challenges, explain to an adult how the perfect tense is formed in the past, present and future.

(See Mark Scheme)

Independent Tasks

Challenge 1

1a. Jake has written the sentence below in the past perfect tense.

The meeting had finished.

Rewrite the sentence in the present perfect tense.

1b. Lily has written the sentence below in the future perfect tense.

Fay will have rested.

Rewrite the sentence in the present perfect tense.

2a. Choose the future perfect form of the verb below and use it to write a sentence.

checking	check	checked
----------	-------	---------

2b. Choose the past perfect form of the verb below and use it to write a sentence.

asked	ask	asking
-------	-----	--------

3a. The sentences below have been written using the past perfect tense and the future perfect tense.

A I had missed you yesterday.

B I will have missed you yesterday.

Which sentence makes the most sense?
Convince me.

3b. The sentences below have been written using the past perfect tense and the future perfect tense.

A He had fixed it tomorrow.

B He will have fixed it tomorrow.

Which sentence makes the most sense?
Convince me.

Challenge 2

4a. Luca has written the sentence below in the past perfect tense.

For days, the fierce wind had blown across the country.

Rewrite the sentence in the present perfect tense.

4b. Nina has written the sentence below in the future perfect tense.

Janet will have been to Egypt to see the pyramids.

Rewrite the sentence in the present perfect tense.

5a. Write a sentence using the future perfect form of the verb below:

eat

5b. Write a sentence using the past perfect form of the verb below:

fall

6a. The sentences below have been written using the past perfect tense and the future perfect tense.

A

By the end of tomorrow, I will have completed the test.

B

By the end of tomorrow, I had completed the test.

Which sentence makes the most sense?
Convince me.

6b. The sentences below have been written using the past perfect tense and the future perfect tense.

A

Before the deadline yesterday, Zac will have given in his homework.

B

Before the deadline yesterday, Zac had given in his homework.

Which sentence makes the most sense?
Convince me.

Challenge 3

7a. Alec has written the sentence below in the past perfect tense.

Saskia and her brother had only known Albert for two years although they had grown up living in the same town.

Rewrite the sentence in the present perfect tense.

7b. Mia has written the sentence below in the future perfect tense.

Lawrence will have been friends with Anita for fifteen years so will have invited her to his wedding.

Rewrite the sentence in the present perfect tense.

8a. Write a sentence using the future perfect form of the verbs below:

try use

8b. Write a sentence using the past perfect form of the verbs below:

choose tell

A

9a. The sentences below have been written using the past perfect tense and the future perfect tense.

A Eliza and her team will have already applied for the award and sent in their reports by the end of last year.

B Eliza and her team had already applied for the award and sent in their reports by the end of last year.

Which sentence makes the most sense?
Convince me.

A

9b. The sentences below have been written using the past perfect tense and the future perfect tense.

A Jed and Mike will have both travelled to Barcelona and been to a football match by next Saturday.

B Jed and Mike had both travelled to Barcelona and been to a football match by next Saturday.

Which sentence makes the most sense?
Convince me.

B

Challenge X

12a. Complete the sentence below using the past perfect form of the verbs: 'take' and 'throw'.

As he was feeling angry, Frankie _____ the ball and _____ it over the fence into their neighbour's garden.

12b. Complete the sentence below using the future perfect form of the verbs: 'sit' and 'fall'.

By 7 o'clock tonight, Gary _____ down in his chair and _____ fast asleep after a long and tiring day.

Review

Write the sentences using the correct verb for each tense.

Future Perfect

She _____ achieved the highest score in the whole class.

Present Perfect

Nick _____ been a good friend during this difficult time.

Past Perfect

I _____ corresponded with the venue about possible dates for the party.

Mark Scheme – Lesson 1

Starter

Sentence	Tense
The football match had begun before Ed arrived.	Past perfect
She has rock climbed for many years.	Present perfect
I will have achieved my best score in the test.	Future perfect

Main Teaching

Task 1

Claire will have had her baby before moving into the new house.

Present perfect

Past perfect

Future perfect

Task 2

Max had coached his rugby team for two years but he will have transferred to an older age group by the next season.

Task 3

False, it is written in the future perfect tense.

Task 4

William had studied ancient history for three years.

Formation of the perfect in the present, past and future.

The present perfect is formed with the verb have + the past participle of the verb. For example, 'eat' in the present perfect is have eaten. I have eaten already today. We have eaten already today.

The past perfect is formed with the verb have in the past simple, had + past participle. For example, I had eaten or we had eaten.

The future perfect is formed with the future form of the verb have + the past participle. For example, I will have eaten.

Independent Tasks

Challenge 1

- 1a. The meeting has finished.
- 1b. Fay has rested.
- 2a. Various possible answers, for example: Jack will have checked the list.
- 2b. Various possible answers, for example: Ben had asked the teacher.
- 3a. A makes the most sense because it is written in the past perfect tense and the action took place yesterday.
- 3b. B makes the most sense because it is written in the future perfect tense and the action takes place tomorrow.

Challenge 2

- 4a. For days, the fierce wind has blown across the country.
 4b. Janet has been to Egypt to see the pyramids.
 5a. Various possible answers, for example: By midday, Greg will have eaten his snack.
 5b. Various possible answers, for example: By November, all of the tree's leaves had fallen.
 6a. A makes the most sense because it is written in the future perfect tense and the action takes place tomorrow.
 6b. B makes the most sense because it is written in the past perfect tense and the action took place yesterday.

Challenge 3

- 7a. Saskia and her brother have only known Albert for two years although they have grown up living in the same town.
 7b. Lawrence has been friends with Anita for fifteen years so has invited her to his wedding.
 8a. Various possible answers, for example: Before the bake sale, Jean will have already tried to make a cheesecake and used all of the utensils.
 8b. Various possible answers, for example: Before the party, Oscar will have chosen his fancy dress costume and told his mum which one he wants.
 9a. B makes the most sense because it is written in the past perfect tense and the action took place at the end of last year.
 9b. A makes the most sense because it is written in the future perfect tense and the action takes place in the future.

Challenge X

- 12a. had taken, (had) thrown
 12b. will have sat, (will have) fallen

Review

Write the sentences using the correct verb for each tense.

Future Perfect

She will have achieved the highest score in the whole class.

Present Perfect

Nick has been a good friend during this difficult time.

Past Perfect

I had corresponded with the venue about possible dates for the party.