

Year 5 English Distance Teaching and Learning

Week beginning: 18.5.20

Lesson 4
Learning Intention WALT recognise and use the future perfect form	Key Vocabulary: verb- a word used to describe an action, state or occurrence tense- a form taken by a verb to show the time of an action past participle- the form of a verb, typically ending in -ed in English, which is used in forming perfect and passive tenses auxiliary verbs - form the tense, mood and voice of other verbs. They are also known as 'helping verbs'	What you will need: Pen Lined paper/English book Challenges Lesson 4 video
Starter
Whose sentence is in the future tense?   (See Mark Scheme)
Main Teaching
The Simple Future tense describes events which will take place. For example: I will bake You will bake (singular) He/She/It will bake

We will bake
You will bake (plural)
They will bake

Future Perfect describes events which will be finished before another action takes place.

For example:

I will have baked
You will have baked (singular)
He/She/It will have baked
We will have baked
You will have baked (plural)
They will have baked

Remember, I'll is a contraction of I will.

What are the contractions for: you will, he will, she will, it will, we will and they will?

Task 1

Match the sentences to their tense.

A. Pamela will have read over fifty books and written her own novel by the end of the year.

future
perfect

B. By the time he called her back, she had turned her phone off.

past
perfect

C. Alfie will have moved to Scotland by the end of the summer holidays.

(See Mark Scheme)

Task 2

Tick the sentence which uses the future perfect form.

Alicia had drank all of the milk so her dad was annoyed.

Tomorrow, Jacob is going to the circus with his family.

By the time I get home, you will have fallen asleep.

(See Mark Scheme)

Task 3

Choose the future perfect form of the verb to complete the sentence below.

ate	eating	eaten
------------	---------------	--------------

By the time you are ready, I will have _____ my lunch.

(See Mark Scheme)

Task 4

Complete the sentence below using the future perfect form of the verb: move.

Before the new year, I _____ _____ _____ to my new house.

(See Mark Scheme)

Explain to an adult how the future perfect is formed.

For example, the verb see becomes I will have seen. It is formed by taking the future of have (will have) + the past participle (seen).

Independent Tasks

1a. Complete the table below.

Past Perfect	I had cleaned for hours.
Present Perfect	I have cleaned for hours.
Future Perfect

1b. Complete the table below.

Past Perfect	He had played for years.
Present Perfect	He has played for years.
Future Perfect

2a. Rewrite the sentence below so that it contains a verb in the future perfect form.

The caretaker had opened the door.

2b. Rewrite the sentence below so that it contains a verb in the future perfect form.

The children had checked the list.

3a. Read the sentences below.

Mrs Patel had marked the books.

Mrs Patel will have marked the books.

How does the future perfect form change the meaning of the sentence?

3b. Read the sentences below.

Liam had packed his suitcase.

Liam will have packed his suitcase.

How does the future perfect form change the meaning of the sentence?

4a. Complete the table below.

Past Perfect	The family had walked for miles through the dark forest.
Present Perfect
Future Perfect

4b. Complete the table below.

Past Perfect
Present Perfect	Anita has lived in Germany for seventeen years.
Future Perfect

5a. Rewrite the sentence below so that it contains a verb in the future perfect form.

The tired bird had flown back to its nest before the storm.

5b. Rewrite the sentence below so that it contains a verb in the future perfect form.

By April, Captain Gregor and his crew had travelled around the world.

6a. Read the sentences below.

Before the meal with his friends, Kevin had worked for twelve hours.

Before the meal with his friends, Kevin will have worked for twelve hours.

How does the future perfect form change the meaning of the sentence?

6b. Read the sentences below.

Before the summer break, Ruby will have booked her holiday to Italy.

Before the summer break, Ruby had booked her holiday to Italy.

How does the future perfect form change the meaning of the sentence?

7a. Complete the table below.

Past Perfect	Shane had flown aeroplanes and served in the Air Force for seven years.
Present Perfect
Future Perfect

7b. Complete the table below.

Past Perfect
Present Perfect	Alexa has ridden motorbikes and driven sports cars for years.
Future Perfect

8a. Rewrite the sentence below so that it contains verbs in the future perfect form.

Before the cold, winter weather started, Freya had grown and sold all of the vegetables from her allotment.

8b. Rewrite the sentence below so that it contains verbs in the future perfect form.

By the time the next book in the series was released, Jed had read everything that the author had written.

9a. Read the sentences below.

By the time the sun set, Robert and his friends had designed and built their new tree house.

By the time the sun sets, Robert and his friends will have designed and built their new tree house.

How does the future perfect form change the meaning of the sentence?

9b. Read the sentences below.

Before the visitors arrived, Maisie had prepared the food and set the dining table.

Before the visitors arrive, Maisie will have prepared the food and set the dining table.

How does the future perfect form change the meaning of the sentence?

Read the sentences below.

Before the end of breaktime, Aaron had eaten his snacks.

Before the end of breaktime, Aaron will have eaten his snacks.

How does the future perfect form change the meaning of the sentence?

Review

Complete the table below.

Past Perfect	Sophia had listened to the radio station for ten years.
Present Perfect
Future Perfect

Mark Scheme – Lesson 4

Starter

Gabriel I enjoyed playing in the basketball game this afternoon.

Sinead I'll ride to school and leave my bike in the bike shed.

Lucy I'm taking part in a skipping workshop at school today.

Main Teaching

Contracted forms: you'll, he'll, she'll, it'll, we'll, they'll

Task 1

A. Pamela will have read over fifty books and written her own novel by the end of the year.

future perfect

B. By the time he called her back, she had turned her phone off.

past perfect

C. Alfie will have moved to Scotland by the end of the summer holidays.

Task 2

Alicia had drank all of the milk so her dad was annoyed.

Tomorrow, Jacob is going to the circus with his family.

By the time I get home, you will have fallen asleep.

Task 3

ate	eating	eaten
-----	--------	--------------

By the time you are ready, I will have eaten my lunch.

Task 4

Before the new year, I will have moved to my new house.

The future perfect is formed by taking the future of have (will have) + the past participle. For example, the verb talk. I will have talked...

Independent Tasks

Challenge 1

- 1a. I will have cleaned for hours.
- 1b. He will have played for years.
- 2a. The caretaker will have opened the door.
- 2b. The children will have checked the list.
- 3a. In the past perfect sentence, Mrs Patel has already marked the books. In the future perfect sentence, Mrs Patel has not yet marked the books.
- 3b. In the past perfect sentence, Liam has already packed his suitcase. In the future perfect sentence, Liam has not yet packed his suitcase.

Challenge 2

- 4a. Present Perfect – The family has walked for miles through the dark forest. Future Perfect – The family will have walked for miles through the dark forest.
- 4b. Past Perfect – Anita had lived in Germany for seventeen years. Future Perfect – Anita will have lived in Germany for seventeen years.
- 5a. The tired bird will have flown back to its nest before the storm.
- 5b. By April, Captain Gregor and his crew will have travelled around the world.
- 6a. In the past perfect sentence, Kevin has already worked for twelve hours. In the future perfect sentence, Kevin has not yet worked for twelve hours.
- 6b. In the past perfect sentence, Ruby has already booked her holiday to Italy. In the future perfect sentence, she has not yet booked her holiday.

Challenge 3

- 7a. Present Perfect – Shane has flown aeroplanes and served in the Air Force for twelve years. Future Perfect – Shane will have flown aeroplanes and served in the Air Force for twelve years.
- 7b. Past Perfect – Alexa had ridden motorbikes and driven sports cars for years. Future Perfect – Alexa will have ridden motorbikes and driven sports cars for years.
- 8a. Before the cold, winter weather starts, Freya will have grown and sold all of the vegetables from her allotment.
- 8b. By the time the next book in the series is released, Jed will have read everything that the author has written.
- 9a. In the past perfect sentence, Robert and his friends have already designed and built their new tree house. In the future perfect sentence, Roberts and his friends have not yet built their new tree house.
- 9b. In the past perfect sentence, Maisie has already prepared the food and set the table. In the future perfect sentence, Maisie has not yet prepared the food and set the table.

Challenge X

In the past perfect tense, Aaron has already eaten his snacks. In the future perfect tense, Aaron has not yet eaten his snacks.

Review

Past Perfect	Sophia had listened to the radio station for ten years.
Present Perfect	Sophia has listened to the radio station for ten years.
Future Perfect	Sophia will have listened to the radio station for ten years.

