Bowmansgreen Primary School

Year 6 – Home Learning Grid- Spring Term 2

Choose one Home Learning activity to complete each week. You can choose which task to complete and the order in which you do so. Once you have completed an activity, please ask a page of the complete and the order in which you do so. Once you have completed an activity, please ask a page of the complete and the order in which you do so. Once you have completed an activity, please ask a page of the complete and the order in which you do so. Once you have completed an activity, please ask a page of the complete and the order in which you do so. Once you have completed an activity, please ask a page of the complete and the order in which you do so. Once you have completed an activity, please ask a page of the complete and the order in which you do so. Once you have completed an activity, please ask a page of the complete and the order in which you do so. Once you have completed an activity, please ask a page of the complete and the order in which you do so. Once you have completed an activity, please ask a page of the complete and the order in which you do so. Once you have completed an activity, please ask a page of the complete and the order in which you do so. Once you have completed an activity, please ask a page of the complete and the order in which you do so.

and date in the appropriate space. You may	wish to include photographs of larger pieces of wor	rk and/or practical activities. Home learn	ning is to be handed in by Tuesday each week.
Task One	Task Two	Task Three	Task Four
This half term, our school values are courage and	The 11 th March marks the start of Science Week at	We will be celebrating World Book Day,	Developed by Place2Be, this task encourages young people to determination. We would like you to write a biography of	Bowmansgreen. Research a British scientist who is	on the 27 th March, by dressing up as a	explore what connection means to them, and how it empowers someone who has shown courage and determination. You could	'smashing stereotypes'. Use the link below to help	book character. Pick your favourite book	them. In this task, you are asked to make a postcard to help you write about Malala Yousafzai, Greta Thunberg, Mo Farrah or	you choose a scientist and then create a fact file	character and write a description of them.	feel connected to the people and things you care about. Watch someone you personally know. They don't have to be famous!	about them. Summarise the key points about your	Think back to when we wrote descriptions	the video on the website below and create your own postcard.
Your biography must be three paragraphs long and include: the	chosen scientist and use sub-headings and bullet	of Miss Trunchbull and Baldrick. You will	You can choose either a friend or family member to complete the non-negotiables, formal language and information about where	points to organise your ideas. You should include at	need to include: non-negotiables, show	second half of your postcard with you.
they live/lived, when they were born and what they did that was	least ten different facts.	me don't tell me, figurative language,	https://www.childrensmentalhealthweek.org.uk/families/exchang courageous and determined.	https://www.britishscienceweek.org/smashing-	direct speech, a range of punctuation and	ing-postcards-activity-for-11-14-year-olds/https://www.biographyonline.net/people/famous/courageous.ht	stereotypes-the-profiles/	a range of sentence types. Write at least ml		two paragraphs. You could include what	Challenge!
https://www.theschoolrun.com/what-are-biography-and-	Challenge!	they look like, sound like, their likes and	Write a small paragraph to explain why you have chosen to autobiography	Explain why you chose this scientist and what makes	dislikes and personality traits.	include your selected images on your postcard. What do they Challenge!	them stand out to you. Did they do something	Challenge!	represent?
Many people find acts of courage and determination to be	particularly inspirational? What barriers did they	Write five sentences explaining why this is	'
inspirational. How has your chosen person inspired you and how	overcome? What lessons could you take from their	your favourite character.
will they change the way you think or act?	story?	,	Consut/serve singestons and date:
Parent/carer signature and date:		Parent/carer signature and date:	Parent/carer signature and date:
	Parent/carer signature and date:	and the state of t
	, and my can be signature and anti-
Task Five	Task Six	Task Seven	Task Eight
Task Five Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book.	Task Six Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what	Task Seven In Spanish, we are learning about the	Task Eight Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book,	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what	In Spanish, we are learning about the	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically about spelling; the yellow section is specifically about grammar.	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your research. You should include features of an	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using Spanish vocabulary. Use the printed word	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have to help protect children whilst they are playing or using it on it.
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically about spelling; the yellow section is specifically about grammar. Make sure you give clear definitions and examples of each	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your research. You should include features of an information text such as: headings, subheadings,	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have to help protect children whilst they are playing or using it on it. You could include a repot button, a chat forum or a filter which
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically about spelling; the yellow section is specifically about grammar. Make sure you give clear definitions and examples of each element of GAPS you include within your poster. You must	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your research. You should include features of an information text such as: headings, subheadings, paragraphs, 3 rd person, image and caption and	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using Spanish vocabulary. Use the printed word bank to help you.	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have to help protect children whilst they are playing or using it on it. You could include a repot button, a chat forum or a filter which prevents strangers from contacting you. Don't forgot, whilst you
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically about spelling; the yellow section is specifically about grammar. Make sure you give clear definitions and examples of each element of GAPS you include within your poster. You must include at least five terms. Use the link below for further help:	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your research. You should include features of an information text such as: headings, subheadings, paragraphs, 3 rd person, image and caption and formal language.	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using Spanish vocabulary. Use the printed word bank to help you. Challenge!	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have to help protect children whilst they are playing or using it on it. You could include a repot button, a chat forum or a filter which prevents strangers from contacting you. Don't forgot, whilst you are writing, use the Y6 non-negotiables: a range of punctuation,
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically about spelling; the yellow section is specifically about grammar. Make sure you give clear definitions and examples of each element of GAPS you include within your poster. You must include at least five terms. Use the link below for further help: https://www.theschoolrun.com/primary-grammar-glossary-for-	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your research. You should include features of an information text such as: headings, subheadings, paragraphs, 3 rd person, image and caption and formal language. http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/worldwars/wwtwo/ff	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using Spanish vocabulary. Use the printed word bank to help you. Challenge! Visit the BBC weather website below to	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have to help protect children whilst they are playing or using it on it. You could include a repot button, a chat forum or a filter which prevents strangers from contacting you. Don't forgot, whilst you are writing, use the Y6 non-negotiables: a range of punctuation, range of sentence types, variety sentence starters and purposeful
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically about spelling; the yellow section is specifically about grammar. Make sure you give clear definitions and examples of each element of GAPS you include within your poster. You must include at least five terms. Use the link below for further help:	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your research. You should include features of an information text such as: headings, subheadings, paragraphs, 3 rd person, image and caption and formal language. http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/worldwars/wwtwo/ff 3 blitz.shtml	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using Spanish vocabulary. Use the printed word bank to help you. Challenge! Visit the BBC weather website below to find a summary of the UK's weather for	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have to help protect children whilst they are playing or using it on it. You could include a repot button, a chat forum or a filter which prevents strangers from contacting you. Don't forgot, whilst you are writing, use the Y6 non-negotiables: a range of punctuation, range of sentence types, variety sentence starters and purposeful repetition.
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically about spelling; the yellow section is specifically about grammar. Make sure you give clear definitions and examples of each element of GAPS you include within your poster. You must include at least five terms. Use the link below for further help: https://www.theschoolrun.com/primary-grammar-glossary-for-parents	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your research. You should include features of an information text such as: headings, subheadings, paragraphs, 3 rd person, image and caption and formal language. http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/worldwars/wwtwo/ff 3 blitz.shtml http://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/war/blitz.	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using Spanish vocabulary. Use the printed word bank to help you. Challenge! Visit the BBC weather website below to find a summary of the UK's weather for that day. Can you recreate the weather	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have to help protect children whilst they are playing or using it on it. You could include a repot button, a chat forum or a filter which prevents strangers from contacting you. Don't forgot, whilst you are writing, use the Y6 non-negotiables: a range of punctuation, range of sentence types, variety sentence starters and purposeful repetition. Challenge!
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically about spelling; the yellow section is specifically about grammar. Make sure you give clear definitions and examples of each element of GAPS you include within your poster. You must include at least five terms. Use the link below for further help: https://www.theschoolrun.com/primary-grammar-glossary-for-parents	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your research. You should include features of an information text such as: headings, subheadings, paragraphs, 3 rd person, image and caption and formal language. http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/worldwars/wwtwo/ff 3 blitz.shtml http://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/war/blitz.htm	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using Spanish vocabulary. Use the printed word bank to help you. Challenge! Visit the BBC weather website below to find a summary of the UK's weather for that day. Can you recreate the weather map but include Spanish vocabulary?	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have to help protect children whilst they are playing or using it on it. You could include a repot button, a chat forum or a filter which prevents strangers from contacting you. Don't forgot, whilst you are writing, use the Y6 non-negotiables: a range of punctuation, range of sentence types, variety sentence starters and purposeful repetition. Challenge! Could you create a logo which companies would be able to put on
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically about spelling; the yellow section is specifically about grammar. Make sure you give clear definitions and examples of each element of GAPS you include within your poster. You must include at least five terms. Use the link below for further help: https://www.theschoolrun.com/primary-grammar-glossary-for-parents Challenge! Create a pneumonic, a catchy phrase or draw a picture to help	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your research. You should include features of an information text such as: headings, subheadings, paragraphs, 3 rd person, image and caption and formal language. http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/worldwars/wwtwo/ff 3 blitz.shtml http://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/war/blitz.htm https://www.theschoolrun.com/information-text	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using Spanish vocabulary. Use the printed word bank to help you. Challenge! Visit the BBC weather website below to find a summary of the UK's weather for that day. Can you recreate the weather	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have to help protect children whilst they are playing or using it on it. You could include a repot button, a chat forum or a filter which prevents strangers from contacting you. Don't forgot, whilst you are writing, use the Y6 non-negotiables: a range of punctuation, range of sentence types, variety sentence starters and purposeful repetition. Challenge! Could you create a logo which companies would be able to put on their products to show consumers that their game or app has your
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically about spelling; the yellow section is specifically about grammar. Make sure you give clear definitions and examples of each element of GAPS you include within your poster. You must include at least five terms. Use the link below for further help: https://www.theschoolrun.com/primary-grammar-glossary-for-parents Challenge! Create a pneumonic, a catchy phrase or draw a picture to help you and others memorise the key vocabulary.	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your research. You should include features of an information text such as: headings, subheadings, paragraphs, 3 rd person, image and caption and formal language. http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/worldwars/wwtwo/ff 3 blitz.shtml http://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/war/blitz.htm https://www.theschoolrun.com/information-text Challenge!	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using Spanish vocabulary. Use the printed word bank to help you. Challenge! Visit the BBC weather website below to find a summary of the UK's weather for that day. Can you recreate the weather map but include Spanish vocabulary?	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have to help protect children whilst they are playing or using it on it. You could include a repot button, a chat forum or a filter which prevents strangers from contacting you. Don't forgot, whilst you are writing, use the Y6 non-negotiables: a range of punctuation, range of sentence types, variety sentence starters and purposeful repetition. Challenge! Could you create a logo which companies would be able to put on their products to show consumers that their game or app has your innovative feature?
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically about spelling; the yellow section is specifically about grammar. Make sure you give clear definitions and examples of each element of GAPS you include within your poster. You must include at least five terms. Use the link below for further help: https://www.theschoolrun.com/primary-grammar-glossary-for-parents Challenge! Create a pneumonic, a catchy phrase or draw a picture to help	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your research. You should include features of an information text such as: headings, subheadings, paragraphs, 3 rd person, image and caption and formal language. http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/worldwars/wwtwo/ff 3 blitz.shtml http://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/war/blitz.htm https://www.theschoolrun.com/information-text Challenge! Within your leaflet, include information about what	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using Spanish vocabulary. Use the printed word bank to help you. Challenge! Visit the BBC weather website below to find a summary of the UK's weather for that day. Can you recreate the weather map but include Spanish vocabulary?	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have to help protect children whilst they are playing or using it on it. You could include a repot button, a chat forum or a filter which prevents strangers from contacting you. Don't forgot, whilst you are writing, use the Y6 non-negotiables: a range of punctuation, range of sentence types, variety sentence starters and purposeful repetition. Challenge! Could you create a logo which companies would be able to put on their products to show consumers that their game or app has your
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically about spelling; the yellow section is specifically about grammar. Make sure you give clear definitions and examples of each element of GAPS you include within your poster. You must include at least five terms. Use the link below for further help: https://www.theschoolrun.com/primary-grammar-glossary-for-parents Challenge! Create a pneumonic, a catchy phrase or draw a picture to help you and others memorise the key vocabulary.	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your research. You should include features of an information text such as: headings, subheadings, paragraphs, 3 rd person, image and caption and formal language. http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/worldwars/wwtwo/ff 3 blitz.shtml http://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/war/blitz.htm https://www.theschoolrun.com/information-text Challenge! Within your leaflet, include information about what was put in place to ensure the safety of the people	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using Spanish vocabulary. Use the printed word bank to help you. Challenge! Visit the BBC weather website below to find a summary of the UK's weather for that day. Can you recreate the weather map but include Spanish vocabulary? https://www.bbc.co.uk/weather	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have to help protect children whilst they are playing or using it on it. You could include a repot button, a chat forum or a filter which prevents strangers from contacting you. Don't forgot, whilst you are writing, use the Y6 non-negotiables: a range of punctuation, range of sentence types, variety sentence starters and purposeful repetition. Challenge! Could you create a logo which companies would be able to put on their products to show consumers that their game or app has your innovative feature?
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically about spelling; the yellow section is specifically about grammar. Make sure you give clear definitions and examples of each element of GAPS you include within your poster. You must include at least five terms. Use the link below for further help: https://www.theschoolrun.com/primary-grammar-glossary-for-parents Challenge! Create a pneumonic, a catchy phrase or draw a picture to help you and others memorise the key vocabulary.	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your research. You should include features of an information text such as: headings, subheadings, paragraphs, 3 rd person, image and caption and formal language. http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/worldwars/wwtwo/ff 3 blitz.shtml http://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/war/blitz.htm https://www.theschoolrun.com/information-text Challenge! Within your leaflet, include information about what was put in place to ensure the safety of the people and children who lived in London, or cities within the	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using Spanish vocabulary. Use the printed word bank to help you. Challenge! Visit the BBC weather website below to find a summary of the UK's weather for that day. Can you recreate the weather map but include Spanish vocabulary? https://www.bbc.co.uk/weather	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have to help protect children whilst they are playing or using it on it. You could include a repot button, a chat forum or a filter which prevents strangers from contacting you. Don't forgot, whilst you are writing, use the Y6 non-negotiables: a range of punctuation, range of sentence types, variety sentence starters and purposeful repetition. Challenge! Could you create a logo which companies would be able to put on their products to show consumers that their game or app has your innovative feature?
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically about spelling; the yellow section is specifically about grammar. Make sure you give clear definitions and examples of each element of GAPS you include within your poster. You must include at least five terms. Use the link below for further help: https://www.theschoolrun.com/primary-grammar-glossary-for-parents Challenge! Create a pneumonic, a catchy phrase or draw a picture to help you and others memorise the key vocabulary.	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your research. You should include features of an information text such as: headings, subheadings, paragraphs, 3 rd person, image and caption and formal language. http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/worldwars/wwtwo/ff 3 blitz.shtml http://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/war/blitz.htm https://www.theschoolrun.com/information-text Challenge! Within your leaflet, include information about what was put in place to ensure the safety of the people and children who lived in London, or cities within the United Kingdom.	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using Spanish vocabulary. Use the printed word bank to help you. Challenge! Visit the BBC weather website below to find a summary of the UK's weather for that day. Can you recreate the weather map but include Spanish vocabulary? https://www.bbc.co.uk/weather	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have to help protect children whilst they are playing or using it on it. You could include a repot button, a chat forum or a filter which prevents strangers from contacting you. Don't forgot, whilst you are writing, use the Y6 non-negotiables: a range of punctuation, range of sentence types, variety sentence starters and purposeful repetition. Challenge! Could you create a logo which companies would be able to put on their products to show consumers that their game or app has your innovative feature? Parent/carer signature and date:
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically about spelling; the yellow section is specifically about grammar. Make sure you give clear definitions and examples of each element of GAPS you include within your poster. You must include at least five terms. Use the link below for further help: https://www.theschoolrun.com/primary-grammar-glossary-for-parents Challenge! Create a pneumonic, a catchy phrase or draw a picture to help you and others memorise the key vocabulary.	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your research. You should include features of an information text such as: headings, subheadings, paragraphs, 3 rd person, image and caption and formal language. http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/worldwars/wwtwo/ff 3 blitz.shtml http://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/war/blitz.htm https://www.theschoolrun.com/information-text Challenge! Within your leaflet, include information about what was put in place to ensure the safety of the people and children who lived in London, or cities within the	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using Spanish vocabulary. Use the printed word bank to help you. Challenge! Visit the BBC weather website below to find a summary of the UK's weather for that day. Can you recreate the weather map but include Spanish vocabulary? https://www.bbc.co.uk/weather	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have to help protect children whilst they are playing or using it on it. You could include a repot button, a chat forum or a filter which prevents strangers from contacting you. Don't forgot, whilst you are writing, use the Y6 non-negotiables: a range of punctuation, range of sentence types, variety sentence starters and purposeful repetition. Challenge! Could you create a logo which companies would be able to put on their products to show consumers that their game or app has your innovative feature? Parent/carer signature and date:
Using the GAPS poster handout in your Home Learning book, choose an aspect to focus on and produce your own colourful GAPS mind map or poster. E.g., the pink section is specifically about spelling; the yellow section is specifically about grammar. Make sure you give clear definitions and examples of each element of GAPS you include within your poster. You must include at least five terms. Use the link below for further help: https://www.theschoolrun.com/primary-grammar-glossary-for-parents Challenge! Create a pneumonic, a catchy phrase or draw a picture to help you and others memorise the key vocabulary.	Research the Blitz. Find out when it happened, what happened, where it happened and the effect it had on the country. Create a leaflet to present your research. You should include features of an information text such as: headings, subheadings, paragraphs, 3 rd person, image and caption and formal language. http://www.bbc.co.uk/history/worldwars/wwtwo/ff 3 blitz.shtml http://www.primaryhomeworkhelp.co.uk/war/blitz.htm https://www.theschoolrun.com/information-text Challenge! Within your leaflet, include information about what was put in place to ensure the safety of the people and children who lived in London, or cities within the United Kingdom.	In Spanish, we are learning about the weather. Keep a diary for one week and document what the weather is like using Spanish vocabulary. Use the printed word bank to help you. Challenge! Visit the BBC weather website below to find a summary of the UK's weather for that day. Can you recreate the weather map but include Spanish vocabulary? https://www.bbc.co.uk/weather	Before half term, we discussed being safe whilst online. We would like you to write a proposal (about a paragraph long) of a safety feature you think one of your favourite games or apps should have to help protect children whilst they are playing or using it on it. You could include a repot button, a chat forum or a filter which prevents strangers from contacting you. Don't forgot, whilst you are writing, use the Y6 non-negotiables: a range of punctuation, range of sentence types, variety sentence starters and purposeful repetition. Challenge! Could you create a logo which companies would be able to put on their products to show consumers that their game or app has your innovative feature? Parent/carer signature and date: